TIRED OUT.

There's many a farmer's wife sits on the porch in the growing shadows of a summer evening, knowing to the full what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. That's the tiredness of a healthy woman. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest itself seems to increase her suffering. Just as in profound silence a discord jars the ear more forcibly, so now that she has stopped moving about, this tired woman feels more acutely the aching back and throbbing head.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Words cannot tell what I suffered for thirteen years with uterine trouble and dragging down pains through my hips and back," writes Mrs. John Dickson, of Grenfell, Australia Dist., N. W. Tex. "I can't describe the misery it was to be on my feet long at a time. I could not eat nor sleep. Often I wished to die. Then I saw Dr. Pierce's medicine advertised and thought I would try them. Had not taken one bottle till I was feeling well. After I had taken five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was like a new woman. Could eat and sleep and do all my own work."

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, is sent free on request. Stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH Nasal Catarrh.

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. ELY'S CREAM BALM cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. CREAM BALM is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large size, 50c at drugstore or by mail. Trial size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS. AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is not a mere stimulant to treat nature. It affords a complete and absolute rest by digesting the food you eat. You don't have to diet but can enjoy all the good food you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure instantly relieves that distressing feeling after eating, giving you new life and vigor. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

RULES AT THE CORONATION.

There is a flutter in high London society owing to the fact that the Earl Marshal has issued the rules and regulations governing what is to be worn at the coronation of King Edward next year.

The whole document breathes of the middle ages, when distinctions in dress were considered so essential, and the quaintness of the phraseology in which the attendance of the nobility of the United Kingdom is required "at the solemnity of the royal coronation of their most sacred Majesties," and describing the regulations in regard to dresses and head dresses, is distinctly medieval.

There is a curious gradation in the furnishings of the robes which emphasize the fine distinctions existing in the ranks of the aristocracy. All the peers have been notified that their robes must be of crimson velvet edged with miniver, the capured fur with miniver, pure and powdered, with bars or rows of ermine, according to their degree.

Here follow the munificent gradations distinguishing between the ranks. Barons are allowed two rows of ermine, viscounts two and a half rows, earls three rows, marquesses three and a half rows and dukes four rows. All the knights and robes must be worn over full court dress, uniform or regimentals.

The Earl Marshal's order banishes counterfeited pearls and all jewels from coronets, which are to be "silver gilt, the caps of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with gold tassels on top. No jewels or precious stones are to be set or used in coronets, nor counterfeits of pearls instead of silver balls."

The number of silver balls permitted revives a nice sense of distinction. A baron's coronet bears six silver balls, a viscount's 10, an earl's eight, with gold strawberry leaves between; a marquess four balls and four leaves alternately. A duke's coronet has no balls, and has only eight gold strawberry leaves.

The Earl Marshal next prescribes the robes, mantles and coronets to be worn by the peeresses. These are of the same materials as the men's, with similar gradations in the numbers of bars of ermine and balls.

The length of the trains marks the difference in rank. A baroness is only allowed a train of three feet; a viscountess has one and a quarter yards; countesses have one and a half yards; a marchioness has one and three quarters yards, and a duchess two yards.

Then follows a curt notification as to who shall be excluded. Peeresses in their own right and widows of peers are allowed to come, but widows who have remarried beneath their rank in the peerage are "not entitled to a summons" to attend the coronation.

STRANGE THINGS IN PARIS.

All France has been startled by crimes perpetrated by a young farmer named Ardison, near Toulon.

The crimes rival the exploits of the feudal Baron Gilles de Retz.

Ardison systematically unearthed bodies of girls and women, which he decapitated, taking the heads home. Remains accidentally found in a hay loft led to the discovery of the crimes.

Experts in mental diseases declare that Ardison is afflicted with a mania called necrophilia, meaning "love for dead bodies."

The police are occupied in the investigation of another strange case. The wife of an engineer had been irritated by the drunken habits of her husband. When he was intoxicated the limit of patience the other day and determined to inflict a lesson on the erring spouse. As he arrived home about 2 o'clock in the morning in the usual state she conducted him into the work-shops, flung him face downward, fastened him securely, and taking the bellows from the forge, proceeded to blow him up. The pain he suffered brought him to his senses, and he cries summoned the neighbors, who released him, seriously ill with peritonitis. His wife was arrested.

A disappointed lover named Bahr, hearing that his fiancée was untrue to her engagement, collected his securities, worth $140,000, on a table and left them with a note saying: "These are my dowry to death, who is now my only bride." Then he inhaled charcoal fumes until death came.

CHESAPEAKE AND WESTERN.—The work on the 14-mile extension of the Chesapeake and Western Company is nearly completed, and the steel bridge at Bridgewater spanning North river is completed. It is expected that trains will be run into North river gap by the middle of last of October. The road is said to be in the hands of the Seaboard Air Line combination. At Stoke City, the western terminus of the road, an immense sawmill, with a capacity of 250,000 feet of lumber per day, is being put up; tramways are being constructed throughout the timber region of North river gap, and mineral interests of that section are being developed. Four or five engineering corps are en-
